LIEUT. CORD MEYER INJURED. Fell 2,000 Feet When Lieut. Alex. B. Thaw Was Killed.

PARIS, Aug. 29.-It was Lieut. Cord Meyer who was injured in the airplane accident Aughst 18, which resulted in the death of Lieut. Alexander Blair Thaw 2d of Pittsburg. Lieut. Meyer suffered injuries to both his legs.

August 22 announcing the death of Lieut. Thaw said he had been killed when his machine developed engine trouble at an altitude of two thousand feet and fell. The despatch added that Thaw's companion aviator, whose name was not given, was badly injured.

Lieut. Cord Meyer is a son of the late Cord Meyer, formerly chairman of the New York State Democratic com-mittee. He is 23 years old and left Yale in his senior year to enter the aviation service soon after America entered the war. He returned fo Yale and received his diploma in June, 1917, and sailed for France July 18. A cable-

If U. S. Men Continue Same Dash Germany Is Lost, Say Prisoners.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29 .- Andre Tardieu, high commissioner of Franco-American war cooperation, now in Paris, has given to the Associated Press a comprehensive statement summing up the military events of the last five months and showing thir present bearing on the war.

He says German prisoners declare that if the whole American army shows the same dash as the Americans who have been in action so far the German cause is lost. He adds: "Though it is too soon to sum up as a whole the military operations extend-ing from August 5 to 25, since the battle man high command to the German troops are now of a decidedly defensive Senator Wadsworth (N. Y.) de-nounced the prohibition act as a "fake."

He called special attention to the pro-cision of the amendment designed to twenty-four fresh divisions, that is to keep prohibition in effect until the demobilization of the army. The original amendment had limited its operation to the end of the war.

Senator Borah pointed out that the Administration has power to stop the manufacture of beer and wine whenever the below and the constitute the senator bears and the constitute the manufacture of beer and wine whenever the senator bears are senator bears and the senator bears and the senator bears are senator bears and the senator bears are senator bears and the senator bears and the senator bears are senator bears and the senator bears are senator bears and the senator bears and the senator bears and the senator bears are senator bears and the senator bears and the senator bears and the senator bears are senator bears and the senator bears and the senator bears are senator bears and the senator bears and the senator bears are senator bears are senator bears and the senator bears are senator bears and the senator bears are senator bears and the senator bears are senator bears are senator bears and the senator bears are senator bears and the senator bears are senator bears are senator bears are senator bears are senator bears and the senator bears are senator bears are senator bears and the senator bears are senator bears are senator bears and the senator bears are senato

Germans' last reserve in the present battle. "The answers of prisoners, secret doc-
